

Saint-Louis Bubbles Green Hock

$310.00

Saint-Louis' signature Bubbles pattern, both whimsical and elegant, is given even more dimension by this collection's full spectrum of rich colors. While traditionally used for white wine, hocks make superb glasses for any occasion. Founded in 1767--with roots going back almost 200 years earlier--the Cristallerie Royale de Saint-Louis has shaped the very history of glasswork, and created fine crystal for generation after generation of kings and queens. Today, Saint-Louis forges a path between heritage and innovation, remaining strenuously committed to preserving the methods it's perfected over centuries of high-level craftsmanship, while at the same time staying on the cutting edge of modern crystal techniques and design.
