

Venini Black Belt Ovale

FROM $1,750.00

Bowing out with a wide top from a small base, these vases feature a strong color combination along with a simple yet bold design. Available in four sizes. Pictured: From Left - XL, Large, Medium Small pictured individually. Using completely handcrafted procedures, Venini's pieces are all created using Murano glass. Due to the nature of these old-fashioned procedures, any varying shades or bubbles, that may be found on the glass, are only reminders of the process, making each piece entirely unique. Limited Edition and signed by the artist. Born in New York City in 1949, Peter Marino grew to join the highest echelons of luxury design architects in the city after winning awards for residential, retail and hospitality projects worldwide. Marino is known to integrate commissions into his architectural designs and as a collector, is known for his affection for modern and contemporary art. The limited edition Black Belt collection is designed by Peter Marino and encompassing his artistic vision.
